

SPIRITUAL GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS IN WESTERN TRADITIONS

	The Rosicrucian Order	The Ancient Mystical Order of the Rose Cross. There is no religious connotation. Has its roots in the mystery traditions, philosophy, and myths of ancient Egypt dating back to approximately 1500 BCE.
	Ann Ree Colton Nisience Foundation	Non-profit religious and educational foundation dedicated to preserving spreading the teachings. Ann Ree Colton's combination of Christian and Theosophical-Occult concepts. More explicitly Christian. Wide range of books by her.
anthroposophy.org <small>Anthroposophical Society in America</small>	Anthroposophical Society	A discipline of research as well as a path of knowledge, service, personal growth and social engagement. Introduced by Rudolph Steiner.
	Findhorn	An NGO associated with the United Nations Department of Public Information. A dynamic experiment where everyday life is guided by the inner voice of spirit, working in co-creation with the intelligence of nature and taking inspired action towards a vision of a better world.
	The Grand Lodge of Ancient Universal Mysteries	An international order of FreeMasonry. A revitalised Freemasonry, built upon the blueprints of its intended seed idea (many aeons ago) and architectural design. Open to all worthy men and women of all creeds and of every race, whilst insisting that all shall stand upon the recognition of an exact equality of divine origin.

The Network of Spiritual Progressives

The Network of Spiritual Progressives

An international political and social justice movement based in the US that seeks to influence American politics towards more humane, progressive values. Challenges what it perceives as the misuse of religion by political conservatives and the anti-religious attitudes of many liberals. Internationally, seeks to foster inter-religious understanding and work for social justice.